Ethics and Integrity Panel

Title: Violence Against Women & Girls (VAWG)

Date: 17 May 2022
Agenda Item No: 08
Originating Officer: Chief Superintendent Lisa Hogan

1. Introduction

1.1 This papers provides an update for the Panel on the work being carried out by the Constabulary in relation to the Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) action plan

Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG)

- NPCC strategy received.
- Cumbria VAWG strategy created.
- Embedded into violent crime strategy and Force management statement.

- Cumbria tactical plan returned to NPCC for review in March 2022.
- Awaiting feedback.

- Tactical plan set using 3 VAWG pillars .
- Tactical owners set for each pillar.
- HMICFRS, NPCC, and Cumbria aspirational outcomes set.

- VAWG lesson plan created for officers
- VAWG Webpage created including NPCC toolkits.

- VAWG board created with monthly reviews of tactical plan.
- VAWG scrutiny panel being created.

- Projects within tactical plan ongoing
- Media campaign will launch VAWG year 2 in May 2022. Monthly VAWG media on the 3 pillars planned for each month

Strategic Lead:
Ch Supt Lisa Hogan
Lisa.Hogan@cumbria.police.uk

Tactical Lead:
Supt Sally Blaiklock
Sally.Blaiklock@cumbria.police.uk