Data Protection

All information submitted on this application will be held by the Office of Police Fire and Crime Commissioner (OPFCC) and will contribute directly to the decision that is made regarding allocations of funding and for our own research purposes.

We will provide copies of all or some of this information to individuals and organisations we consult with when assessing applications, monitoring grants, and evaluating funding processes and associated impacts. These organisations may include external auditors and other organisations involved in delivering the projects.

Summary information from this application may be published on our website to assist other applicants in the future and to inform members of the public of the projects funded by the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner (PFCC).

Full grant applications will be retained for a maximum of 6 years (plus current year). Information will be retained on a database at the Office of Police Fire and Crime Commissioner for statistical and monitoring purposes.

Freedom of Information

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives members of the public the right to request any information that we hold. This includes information received from third parties such as grant applications and grant holders.

If information is requested under the Freedom of Information Act we will release it, subject to exemptions; although we may choose to consult with you first. Your signatures on this form confirms that you understand the PFCCs obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Projects involving children, young people and vulnerable adults

For those projects working with children, young people, and vulnerable adults there is a responsibility for the group/organisation to have an up-to-date safeguarding policy and procedures in place to ensure the welfare and safeguarding of children, young people or vulnerable adults.

Lobbying

Any attempt to lobby the Police Fire and Crime Commissioner (PFCC), members of the OPFCC, Police and Crime Panel or Constabulary employees (directly or indirectly) is likely to lead to your application being withdrawn from the selection process.

Financial Information

The following costs are not eligible expenditure: payments that support activity to influence parliament, government or political parties, the awarding or renewal of contracts and grants, or legislative or regulatory action.

All monies should be spent in accordance with your application. The Office of the Police Fire and Crime Commissioner reserves the right to reclaim all or part of the funding if it is found that the terms of the grant have been breached.

Any funding that is not spent in accordance with your application or is not spent within the time stated will be returned, unless agreed by the OPFCC. The funds maybe the subject of internal financial review.

Media, Communications and Engagement

When applying, the applicant must accept that it is compulsory that they engage with our OPFCC Media Team, to arrange visits for engagement. The applicant must also ensure that media is captured and communicated with the OPFCC.

Through media, communications, and engagement, we can demonstrate the fantastic work that the Community Fund helps to deliver, and the positive outcomes achieved for our local communities. Specific details will be included in your Grant Agreement.
